We help non-US residents in setting up a US company remotely with 100% ownership without stepping a foot in the US, even without having a US resident in the board of directors

OVERVIEW

U.S.A COMPANY FORMATION SERVICES FOR NON-RESIDENTS

Setting up a U.S. company, whether you're expanding your existing business into the U.S. market or looking to launch a startup, is a complicated process that can be costly if you use traditional incorporation methods or service providers.

Many individuals seek expensive legal advice on how to complete the necessary steps to set up a U.S. company which is an antiquated approach in our minds.

That's why we created our online platform that provides non-U.S. residents with a complete service offering of everything required to legally and cost-effectively establish a U.S. entity, remotely, from anywhere in the world.

This brochure is intended to document our company formation services and to provide an overview of our online legal-tech platform.

EMPLOYER IDENTIFICATION NUMBER

"EIN" stands for "Employer Identification Number," and it is a unique nine-digit number assigned by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) to businesses and other entities for tax identification purposes. The EIN is also referred to as a Federal Tax Identification Number. It is used to identify businesses and is necessary for various tax-related tasks, including filing tax returns, opening a business bank account, and hiring employees.

USA

REGISTERED AGENT

A USA Registered Agent, also known as a United States Registered Agent or a U.S. Registered Agent, is an individual or entity designated to accept important legal and government documents on behalf of a business entity, such as a corporation or limited liability company (LLC), within the United States. These documents can include legal notices, tax forms, and official communications from government agencies.

USA VIRTUAL ADDRESS

Every U.S. state requires businesses that register with a state as legal entities (LLCs, partnerships, corporations) to have a registered agent. This registered agent sometimes called a statutory agent or agent of process, must have a business address in the state. The registered agent is the person who is designated to receive federal and state legal documents
